FFA SOILS TEAM TO COMPETE AT STATE

Article submitted

The Keota FFA Soils team will be competing at the State Soils Competition at Iowa State University on Sat., Oct. 10.

This group of students has seen success at their first two soil judging competitions. They began their season with a first place win at the Quad County Soils competition. They then moved on to the SE Iowa District Competition at Muscatine, where they placed 4th out of 27 FFA soil judging teams.

Each FFA District in the State of Iowa takes their top five teams to compete at State FFA Soils.

Congratulations and good luck to these outstanding students!

KHS ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

BY COLE STOUT

This week's Athlete of the Week is Nate Sieren. Nate has played a great football season this year. Nate has had 41 rush attempts, 238 rushing yards, averages 5.8 yards per carry, 2 touchdowns, and his longest touchdown was 63 yards. He has had 6 receptions, 97 yards off catches, and he has averaged 16.2 yards per catch. Nate has 16 solo tackles, 15 tackle assists, and 23.5 total tackles. He has scored 18 points this season.

Though he recently sustained a leg injury that would take him out for the season, Nate looks forward to getting back with his team and watching them battle out the last few games. Nate's goals include being there to motivate his teammates and rehabilitating his leg for basketball season. His ultimate achievement for football would be to make an impact on his team and finish the season.

Nate's favorite motto is "Don't not Run," which Coach Jarmes tells them to push them, make them hustle, and stay in shape. Nate plays runningback and outside linebacker. Nate loves the team aspect and the tough mentality it takes to play football.

Nate's favorite moments in football were watching Cole Brenneman's celebrations after a good play and listening to his reasons for missing his block. Nate also said, "Injuries may bring you down, but the support you get from others brings you back up every time."

JR. HIGH ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

BY JACE UPHOLD

This week's Athlete of the Week is Patrick Clarahan. Patrick is a 7th grader involved in junior high football. Patrick says that he is looking forward to winning more games throughout the season and becoming an all around great team. Patrick is trying to improve on running the ball down the field and scoring more. He says that his ultimate achievement for the football season would be to get a 40 yard run. Patrick and his team have one favorite saying that they always say when something goes wrong, "Shoot Bud". Patrick plays wingback on the offense and his goal is to score more touchdowns. Patrick says that football is his favorite sport and he loves everything about it.
