KHS SPRING MUSICAL PRACTICE UNDERWAY

BY BAYLEI MCCLELLAND

This year's spring musical practice is now underway and this year the play will be "The Big Bad Musical," directed by Jane Edwards. This musical is about a trial that is being held against the Big Bad Wolf. In this musical there are appearances from many fairy tale characters.

The students and their roles are as follows: Olivia Sieren as Sydney Grimm, Bianca Cardona as Fairy Godmother, Gracie McHugh as Little Red Riding Hood, Elise Swanstrom as Little Pig One, Caroline Reeves as Little Pig Two, Justin Moeller as Little Pig Three, Marty Baker as Bill Woodcutter, Jacob Moeller as Shepherd, June Daing as The Boy Who Cried Wolf, Zach Mousel as the Big Bad Wolf, Lauren Imhoff, Jill Schulte, and Bergen Dalton as the Wolfettes, Trey Carlson as the Judge, Ben Shemanski as the Baliff, Abby Schulte as the Evil Stepmother, and Megan Hill as Little Miss Muffit.

Mark your calendars now to come and watch these students perform in the Spring Musical on April 5th and 6th at 7:30 p.m.

HOW WILL SENIORS RESPOND THE SECOND TIME AROUND?

Each week, we ask a Senior the same question they were asked for the Question of the Week when they were in 7th grade. Let's see how their responses have changed over the years...

Nate Sieren

Q: What is your favorite thing about winter?

7th:
Answer:
"Trapping Beavers."

12th:
Answer:
"Skiing with my friends."

ELEMENTARY STUDENTS ENJOY FFA TRACTOR DAY

Addy Chapman, Keota Elementary Preschool student, poses inside the wheel of one of the tractors brought in by FFA students.

The Purple Preschool class takes a look at all the tractors.

Quinten Cave, Brynlee Flynn, and Aspen Galindo show how they can fit inside the wheels of one of the huge tractors.

Pictured is the Purple Preschool class with their teacher, Mrs. Redlinger. They are pictured with the big 4-wheel drive tractor brought in by Cole Brenneman. The kids were quite impressed with its size and really enjoyed getting a close up view of all the tractors the Keota FFA brought in for Tractor Day.

BY GLORIA VEGA

It was a busy week for FFA members during FFA week. Tractor Day took place on Wednesday, February 24th and the elementary came out to enjoy the tractors. Four tractors were brought in by Keota High School FFA students.

The students and the type of tractor they brought were: Matthew Hyman, freshman, with his Farmall tractor;

FFA MEMBERS RACE TO READ DURING READING RELAY

BY AVERY CONRAD

Avery Conrad reads to Ms. McClenahan's Kindergarten class during the Reading Relay at the elementary during National FFA Week. FFA students had to race to their next assigned class when the bell rang and read to students until the next bell rang.

Jack Eakins and Cole Stout read to Mrs. Sprouse's 1st grade class on Thursday, February 25th. The students went over to the elementary school first thing in the morning to read to the kids.

JUNIOR HIGH SCIENCE FAIR PREPARATION IS UNDERWAY

BY ELISE SWANSTROM

Anna Duwa works with her mice for her Science Fair Project. The Science Fair will take place in the KHS Cafeteria on Thursday, March 4.

The annual Keota Science Fair is coming up! Kids from the 7th, 8th, and even 6th grade this year have been working hard on their project for months. These months of prep will not go to waste, as all of their interesting projects can be seen on March 4th in the cafeteria, when the judges will decide whose projects deserve the top prizes. The range is from fruit flies to mice to basketball, so this selection is sure to please. We look forward to seeing how well these young minds of Keota do this year!

BOYS BASKETBALL SEASON COMES TO AN END

BY COLE STOUT

The Keota boys basketball team wrapped up their season last Thursday with a tough loss to Montezuma.

First up, they played on Tues., Feb. 23 against the Sigourney Savages. The Eagles jumped out 17 to 13 at the end of the first quarter with a barrage of threes. The Eagles led 31 to 23 at the end of the half. By the end of the third quarter, the Eagles led 42 to 36. In the end, the Eagles won 61 to 53. The Eagles were led by Isaiah Hahn who had 15 points, followed by Avery Conrad who had 14 points.

On Thurs., Feb. 25, they played the Montezuma Braves. The Eagles played hard, but eventually lost the game 45 to 56. The Eagles' leading scorer was Zach Mousel with 16 points, followed by Avery Conrad with 12 points. The Eagles had a great year this year and came away with the first ever SICL East Division Title. We will look forward to seeing how they progress towards next year, but seniors Nate Sieren, Zach Mousel, Paden Uphold, Tyler Verstraete and Isaiah Hahn will be greatly missed as they impacted many players on the team throughout the season.

FFA STAFF APPRECIATION BREAKFAST

FFA members served up a hot breakfast for the staff last week during FFA week. Pictured from left to right are Raigan Sprouse, Brianna Duwa, Erin Chalupa, and Max Johnson.

FFA members were ready with a cup of orange juice, milk, or coffee for the staff. Pictured are Luke Greiner, Cortney Hyman, Nate Sieren, Logan Sieren, Ryan Chalupa, and Paden Uphold.

Staff members enjoyed the Staff Appreciation Breakfast provided by the FFA on Wed., Feb. 24.

BY JACE UPHOLD

On Wednesday February 24, the Keota FFA Chapter hosted the annual Staff Appreciation Breakfast. They served the teachers and staff a healthy breakfast of sausage, hash browns, toast, egg bake, coffee, orange juice, and milk. The students started early, appearing at 5:30 a.m. to get started cooking and setting up. They started serving teachers at 7:30 a.m. to make sure everybody could eat before school started. The FFA Chapter would like to thank the teachers for all the hard work they do.
