FFA AWARDS BANQUET

CAPTIONS BY ELISE SWANSTROM, ARTICLE BY JACE UPHOLD

The Keota FFA Chapter held its Annual Spring Banquet for FFA members and their families on Friday, May 6. During this banquet, there were many members that received awards.

Many 7th graders received their Discovery Degrees, including Patrick Clarahan, Luke Hammen, Bailey Sieren, Brady Duwa, Jenna Jaeger, Sam Sieren, Bryce Greiner, Max Johnson, Carson Sprouse, Riley Hahn, Chase Kindred, and Conner Woltering.

Five 7th graders and one 8th grader participated in the District CDE Ag Impact this year. These members performed an educational skit about the importance of Agriculture in Washington County. The students included Patrick Clarahan, Brady Duwa, Bryce Greiner, Max Johnson, Conner Woltering, and Cooper Sieren.

There were also many members in the Freshman class that received their Greenhand Degree. These students included Brianna Duwa, Matthew Hyman, Frankie Johnson, Jillian Schulte, Addison Sprouse, Koltan Strand, and Jolee Walker. Two outstanding members that received their Greenhand Degrees also had 4.0 GPAs. These outstanding students were Frankie Johnson and Addison Sprouse.

In the Sophomore class, many students received their Chapter Degree, including Marty Baker, Lexi Black, Cole Brennenman, Riley Conrad, Jack Eakins, Luke Greiner, Jacob Moeller, and Logan Sieren.

Four Seniors received the Academic Achievement Award at the District level. They were Nate Sieren, Ryan Chalupa, Paden Uphold, and Courtney Hyman. Ryan Chalupa received the Dekalb Award, Isaiah Hahn received the Star Ag Farmer, Nate Sieren received the Outstanding Leadership Award, and Paden Uphold received the Star Ag Business Award. Matt and Janie Hahn were honored with the Outstanding Farm Family of the year.

The Chapter also welcomed Matt Romoser, former KHS graduate, as their speaker for the evening. Matt spoke about what life was like at Iowa State University, and how different it was from going to a small school. He stressed the importance of being involved in college, and talked about the many things he was able to do because of his involvement at Iowa State. The evening concluded with an auction of various items made by the FFA students. We congratulate the FFA students for their hard work and achievements this year, and we wish the Seniors well in their future endeavors.
