HALLOWEEN DRESS UP CONTEST WINNERS

BY RILEY CONRAD

Pictured are the winners of the Halloween Dress-Up Contest. From left to right, they are: (back row) June Daing, Trey Carlson, Preston McDonald, Annadell Tusing; (front row) Dakota Loper and Emma Ree-Smith.

Another Halloween has come and gone, and once again the school put on a show for Halloween. There were many students who dressed up for the annual costume competition. They strutted their costumes all day long while Ms. Hobbs and Mrs. Swanson looked for the best costume. By the end of the day, these two judges had decided on the winners. The individual high school winner was June Daing, who dressed up as a Zombie Doctor. The group high school winners were Trey Carlson and Preston McDonald, who dressed up as nerds. In the junior high, the individual winner was Dakota Loper, who dressed up as a pirate. The group winners in the junior high were Emma Ree-Smith and Annadell Tusing, who dressed up as an angel and devil. Congratulations to the winners of this year's Halloween Dress-Up Contest.

EAGLEROCK! WORKS HARD TO RAISE MONEY FOR FLORIDA TRIP

BY JOLEE WALKER

Keota's Eaglerock! Show Choir started off the season strong by performing at the Parent's Night concert on Wednesday, Nov. 1 at 8:00 p.m. The group has put in a great effort by coming to practice at 7:00 a.m. every Tuesday and Thursday morning since school started back in August. Eaglerock! has many competition performances scheduled this year, including one special performance in Florida that occurs in late March. Each member must fundraise $1,100 in order to be able to participate in this fun and exciting group trip.

This year, Eaglerock! has many different things planned for fundraising. They started out the season with a bake sale on Main Street, and proceeded to selling Redwheel, Scentsy, That's My Pan, and cookie dough. They are currently selling frozen pans of lasagna, and will be selling lasagna supper tickets and cookie walk boxes in the future.

Most of the members are planning on participating in the trip to Florida this year, so they will need the support of our community to help them succeed in this goal. If you would like to help any member of Eaglerock! fundraise for their trip to Florida by buying lasagna, lasagna supper tickets, or cookie walk boxes, please contact director Jane Edwards or any Eaglerock! member for more information.

CHRISTMAS COUNTDOWN

ONLY 40 DAYS 'TIL CHRISTMAS DAY!

EAGLE'S WING STAFF

BY ADDISON SPROUSE

STUDENTS ENJOY NEW LOUNGE

BY KENDALL WILSON

The Keota Eagle Advocates improved the Student Lounge by buying new lockers, updating the floor, and Mike McNurlen bricked the wall. Many people helped paint the walls and tear out the old lockers. New tables and chairs have arrived, as well as a new TV for the students to watch.

said her favorite part about the new lockers is that there aren't any combinations. Senior Olivia Sieren says she is glad she has a top locker without a combination. She also likes how they don't take up as much room. Senior Hunter Wilson likes the new TV the most. Sophomore Addie Swanson likes how open the lounge is.

The Student Body at Keota High School is really enjoying the new improvements. They truly appreciate all the hard work and dedication provided by so many volunteers to make this new lounge possible.
