

Athlete of the Week

BY SAWYER STOUT
THE EAGLE'S WING

Jackson Vittetoe

This week's Athlete of the Week is Jackson Vittetoe. Jackson is the younger brother of star basketball and football player Evan Vittetoe. This, however, does not mean Jackson is outshined by his brother at all. Jackson has had a stellar season as the JV basketball team's shooting guard. Jackson says this year he is looking forward to "Beating Sigourney at their place." What he would like to improve on as the season progresses is his defense play. His ultimate achievement in the sport would be to go to State in basketball. Jackson says that his motto is "Go Eagles!" The position he can be seen playing for the Eagles is shooting guard. Jackson says what he likes most about the sport is "shooting threes," which is a staple of the Keota offense. Jackson states that the funniest moment to happen this year was when Jake got a technical foul and had to run a super line in front of the whole team. Jackson is definitely a rising star in Keota, which is why he was picked as the Eagle's Wing Athlete of the Week.

The Eagle's Wing

Issue No. 13

Wednesday, February 8, 2023

Keota High School Newspaper

Eagle's Wing Staff: Aidan Anderson, Dalton Dodd, Dakota Hammen, Cole Kindred, Jocelyn Purkeypyle, Caden Sprouse, Sawyer Stout, and Conner Strand
Adviser: Angela Conrad

This page was composed and designed by Keota High School students. The News Review is not responsible for the makeup or editorial content expressed.

KEOTA SPEECH STUDENTS SHINE

BY SAWYER STOUT
THE EAGLE'S WING

Pictured is the Ensemble acting group "Dinner Plans." From left to right, they are: Ava Greiner, Izzi Chalupa, Kimi Clarahan, Grace Conger, and Lainey Swanson. They received a Division I rating at Districts on Saturday, Jan. 21 and an overall Division II rating at State Contest on Saturday, Feb. 4.

BY AIDAN ANDERSON
THE EAGLE'S WING

Pictured is the Reader's Theater called "How Angel Peterson Got His Name," performed by (left to right): Jake Morris, Jackson Vittetoe, Gavin Sieren, Chase Haifley, and Luke Moeller. They received a I rating at Districts on Saturday, Jan. 21 and a Division I rating at State Contest on Saturday, Feb. 4, 2023. They also received an All State Non-Performing nomination for the 2023 All-State IHSSA Speech Festival in Ames on Saturday, Feb. 18. Congratulations to this group on this outstanding accomplishment.

BY SAWYER STOUT
THE EAGLE'S WING

Pictured at left is the Readers Theater duo performing "Scooter Thomas Makes It To The Top of The World," performed by Noah Fisher (back) and Aiden Conrad (front). They received a group rating of I at Districts on Saturday, Jan. 21 and an overall Division I rating at State Speech Contest on Saturday, Feb. 2, 2023.

Whip of the Week

BY AIDAN ANDERSON
THE EAGLE'S WING

Cael Jaeger

This week's Whip of the Week is none other than Cael Jaeger's 2004 Dodge Ram 2500 with a Hemi engine. This gem has 93,000 miles on it, and it also gets 9.8 miles to the gallon. It is painted charcoal and black, and can hold up to six passengers. Cael purchased this vehicle last summer from Danny Berg for a price of "too much," he said. The truck features an aftermarket radio that Cael has tuned to the stations of 98.1, 99.7, 106.5, 100.7, and 94.1. Cael has traveled up to max speeds of 65 miles per hour while cruising around. This is fun for him because he has never previously owned a vehicle. Cael's favorite thing about his truck is that he no longer has to wait for a ride after sports practices. His favorite memory in his truck so far is taking his brother to chore with him. His brother Levi is also the person that travels with him the most. His least favorite memory, however, is when he missed his turn the first day he brought it to school. It has yet to be taken on any road trips, and he tends to travel the most with it to school, as well as to chore pigs. So what do you think? Does Cael's truck deserve the title of Whip of the Week?

BY AIDAN ANDERSON
THE EAGLE'S WING

Pictured is the Ensemble Acting group called "If Men Played Cards As Women Do," performed by (left to right): Dakota Hammen, Sawyer Stout, Caden Sprouse, and Aiden Conrad. They received a I rating at Districts on Saturday, Jan. 21, as well as a Division I rating at State Speech Contest on Saturday, Feb. 4, 2023.

BY AIDAN ANDERSON
THE EAGLE'S WING

Pictured is the One Act Play "Audition." Pictured on the left are performers Emily Sheetz and Isaac Striegel. Pictured on the right (from left to right) are: Dulaney Clubb, Nicole Clarahan, Taylor Garman, Izzi Chalupa, Grace Conger, Edi Serban, Kimi Clarahan, Savannah Smith, Lainey Swanson, Owen Morris, and (front center) Cassie Swantz. They received a I rating at Districts on Saturday, Jan. 21 and an overall Division I rating at State Speech Contest on Saturday, Feb. 4.

BY SAWYER STOUT
THE EAGLE'S WING

Pictured is the One Act group "10 reasons to Stay Home Sick." Pictured from left to right, they are: Jake Morris, Dakota Dodd, Jackson Vittetoe, Addison Purkeypyle, Chase Haifley, Tierney Greiner, Luke Moeller, Garrett Greiner, Olivia Lyle, Emily Mahan, Cael Jaeger, Gavin Sieren, and Kennedy Jackson. They received a group rating of I at Districts on Saturday, Jan. 21 and an overall Division II rating at State Speech Contest on Saturday, Feb. 4, 2023.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK: What would be the best gift to get for Valentine's Day? By Jocelyn Purkeypyle

Trevor Weeks
Staff
"A box of chocolates."

Chloe Pringle
Senior
"Not going to lie, I think a big teddy bear and my favorite food would be the best gift."

George Axume
Junior
"Flowers for your girl."

Kimi Clarahan
Sophomore
"Candy or jewelry."

Garrett Greiner
Freshman
"Nothing"

Brynn Conrad
8th grade
"Quality time."

Hunter Grandstaff
7th grade
"A box of chocolates."